STATEWIDE CURRENT SITUATION: On May 13, Governor Greg Abbott announced that the U.S. Small Business Administration (SBA) approved his request for a disaster declaration for additional Texas communities following impacts from last month’s severe storms. The SBA has added the following counties to its declaration: Calhoun, DeWitt, Goliad, Jackson, Lavaca, Refugio, and Victoria. These counties have been included in addition to the North Texas communities approved for SBA assistance.

On May 11, Gov. Abbott requested that the SBA include additional Texas communities in the federal disaster declaration following impacts from last month’s severe storms. If approved, the SBA declaration will make federal assistance available through disaster loans for Victoria County and its contiguous counties, in addition to the North Texas counties already included.

On May 7, Gov. Abbott announced that he directed the Texas Division of Emergency Management (TDEM) to request officials from the SBA join state and local partners in conducting preliminary damage assessments in coastal communities impacted by recent severe storms and tornadic activity. These assessments will help determine if the state meets the thresholds for additional federal disaster assistance.

On May 6, Gov. Abbott amended the state’s disaster declaration for severe weather to include Calhoun, Lamar, Palo Pinto, Parker, Victoria, and Wise Counties.

On May 5, Gov. Abbott requested a disaster declaration from the SBA for North Texas communities impacted by severe storms. If approved, the SBA declaration will make federal assistance available through disaster loans for Parker and Wise counties and their contiguous counties.

On May 1, Gov. Abbott amended the state's disaster declaration for severe weather to include Palo Pinto County following impacts from severe storms. With this addition, the total number of counties included in the state's disaster declaration is now four. Additional counties may be added as conditions warrant.

On April 28, Gov. Abbott announced that he issued a disaster declaration for three North Texas counties impacted by severe storms that continue to affect homes and businesses in the region. The counties included in the Governor's declaration are Lamar, Parker, and Wise. Additional counties may be added as conditions warrant.

On April 10, Gov. Abbott announced that he directed TDEM to activate state emergency response resources in anticipation of severe weather expected to impact multiple regions of Texas over the next several days.

OPERATIONAL PRIORITIES:

1. Protect life and property.
2. Support rapid & effective response.
